Introduction

What is Oxford Word Skills?

Oxford Word Skills is a series of three books for students to learn and practise new vocabulary.

Level 1:
Elementary (CEFR levels A1 and A2)

Level 2:
Intermediate (CEFR level B1)

Level 3:
Upper-Intermediate – Advanced
(CEFR levels B2 and C1)

There are over 2,000 new words or phrases in each level, and all of the material can be used in the classroom or for self-study.

How are the books organized?

Each level contains 100 units of vocabulary presentation and practice, with a unit being 1–2 pages, depending on the size of the topic. New vocabulary is presented in manageable chunks, then immediately followed up with practice exercises, often on the same page.

The units are grouped within modules containing 4–12 units. A majority of the modules are topic-based, e.g. People, Leisure and lifestyle, News and current affairs, but some modules have a language focus, e.g. Expand your vocabulary, Aspects of language.

The Upper-Intermediate – Advanced level also contains:

- an Answer key for all the exercises
- a Word list of all the vocabulary taught with a reference to the units where each item appears and the CEFR level for words/phrases in the Oxford 3000™/5000™ or Oxford Phrase List™.

Oxford Word Skills comes with the Oxford Advanced Learner's Dictionary app, which allows learners to find the meaning of new words in English and provides a pronunciation model for the words. You will find pronunciation exercises throughout the book which refer you to the  to check the correct pronunciation.

What vocabulary is included?

At Upper-Intermediate – Advanced level, the vocabulary includes:

- a wide range of topic areas, e.g. behaviour, competitive sport, medical advances
- a range of concepts, e.g. problems and solutions, time, old and new
- different fields of written English, e.g. literature, science, technical English
- a wide range of phrasal verbs and idioms
- various aspects of language, e.g. compounds, prefixes and suffixes, prepositional phrases

Throughout the three levels the main focus is on high-frequency vocabulary in everyday spoken English, although the higher levels increasingly add more language from different styles of English as well as more figurative use of language.

The selection of vocabulary at each level is based on frequency and usefulness, with the foundation being the Oxford 3000 or Oxford 5000. These are lists of 3,000 and 5,000 words, respectively, identified by the Oxford University Press ELT Dictionaries team as the most important words for learners of English. These items have been divided in the Oxford 3000 into four levels in accordance with the CEFR (A1, A2, B1 and B2), and the Oxford 5000 contains additional words at CEFR levels B2 and C1.

- The Elementary level includes many items from A1, but with the majority of items at A2 level.
- The Intermediate level has a focus on B1 items from the Oxford 3000, as well as recycling items from the A2 level.
- The Upper-Intermediate – Advanced level concentrates on B2 items from the Oxford 3000, but also includes additional B2 items and C1 words from the Oxford 5000.

The Oxford 3000/5000 lists are supplemented by the Oxford Phrase List, which contains just under 1,000 phrases considered important for students at each level. The Upper-Intermediate – Advanced word list also draws on topic lists from OUP's learner's dictionaries, which identify key vocabulary items across a range of 60 topics. By using the Oxford 3000/5000 alongside the topic lists, we are able to focus on high-frequency vocabulary, but also to include vocabulary that may not have a high frequency overall, but will have great value in particular contexts, e.g. overtake when talking about driving, extinct/extinction when talking about climate change and the danger to wildlife, or self-catering when talking about holidays. By using the Oxford Phrase List, we are also able to ensure the best coverage of both words and phrases at each level.

We have taken great care to ensure that learners will be able to understand the meaning of all the new words and phrases by supplying a clear illustration, a simple definition, or an example of each word or phrase. Learners should be aware that many English words have more than one meaning. They should refer to the Oxford Advanced Learner's Dictionary  for information on other meanings.

To the teacher

How can I use the material in the classroom?

New vocabulary is presented through:

- visuals

- sentences and short dialogues

The Glasgow School of Art has been devastated yet again by a huge fire. More than 120 firefighters tackled the blaze, which began on Friday night and spread to a concert hall next door. There were no reported casualties, but police evacuated 27 people from nearby properties as a precaution. At the moment, there is no suspicion the fire was started deliberately, but the intense heat is preventing fire officers from getting in to assess the damage. First Minister, Nicola Sturgeon, praised the courage of the firefighters who fought to save the building.	GLOSSARY devastate destroy or damage sth badly devastation n firefighter a person whose job is to stop fires, working for the fire brigade tackle make an effort to deal with a difficult problem or situation blaze a large and often dangerous fire casualty a person who is killed or injured in a war or accident precaution sth you do in order to avoid danger or problems suspicion a feeling or belief that sth is wrong or that sb has done sth wrong suspicious (of sb) adj suspect v deliberately in a way that was planned deliberate adj <small>SYN intentional</small> intense very great, strong or serious: intense heat/cold/pressure intensity n assess judge or form an opinion about sth assessment n praise say that sb is good and should be admired for sth praise n courage the ability to do sth dangerous without showing fear <small>SYN bravery; courageous adj</small>

- Visuals provide a clear guide to meaning; sentences, dialogues and extended text show words being used naturally, with the meaning explained in a glossary (or within a table). The input varies from approximately 15 items in a single A or B section, to 25–30 items on a full page of input. Here is a procedure you could follow:
- Students study the visuals or written text in the presentation for five–ten minutes for an A or B section, or ten–fifteen minutes for a full page. This allows time for them to reinforce the connection between the visual input and the meanings, or to read through the glossary carefully to check the meaning of new items in the presentation sentences, dialogues or extended text. With the information from the glossary, students should then go back to the presentation text and check that they fully understand the meaning of the new words in those contexts.

Tell students to look at the extra words in the glossary (opposites, synonyms, derivatives, collocations and further examples) as this will help them to expand their vocabulary with minimal effort in many cases. It is also important to look at the spotlight boxes. The spotlight box is an additional feature which picks out an item or items of particular value. For example:

SPOTLIGHT accept

Accept means 'say yes to an offer', but has some other meanings, too.

- 1 allow sb to be part of a group:
They accepted me as one of the family. (as in the text)
- 2 agree to sth:
The council has accepted the latest proposal.
- 3 admit you did sth wrong:
I accept responsibility for the mistakes.

SPOTLIGHT expressing family similarities

If you resemble someone/something, you look like or are similar to another person/thing. The emphasis is more on looks than character. resemblance n

If you take after someone, you look or behave like an older member of your family.
If you follow in someone's footsteps, you do the same job or have the same lifestyle as someone else, usually a member of your family.

- While students are working through the presentation, you can answer any questions they may have about the items. This is also an opportunity to provide a pronunciation model for your students to repeat; otherwise, the presentation stage is going to be a long silent phase. You might want to read a text aloud, or get students to read sections of it, etc.
- Students can move on to the first exercise, which they can check for themselves using the Answer key, or you can go over the answers with the whole class. This is probably a better approach, as you can also discuss why they might have arrived at a wrong answer and focus on practising the pronunciation if necessary. It is sensible to work through the exercises chronologically, as they tend to progress from pronunciation practice to receptive practice to controlled productive practice, and then quite often to freer productive practice in the ABOUT YOU or ABOUT YOUR COUNTRY activities.
- When you are satisfied with their answers to the first exercise, you can ask students to go on to further exercises, while you monitor them as they work individually or in pairs, and assist where necessary. When they have finished an exercise, you will find that many of the exercises – sentence completion and particularly dialogue completion – lend themselves to controlled speaking practice. Students can practise dialogues in pairs, or take it in turns to read out complete sentences to each other.
-  TEST YOURSELF When they have completed written exercises, students can test themselves on the new vocabulary. The material has been designed so that students can cover the new words beneath a picture (using a book, notebook or piece of paper) while they look at the visuals and test themselves. They can do the same with some of the tables and glossaries: cover the new vocabulary and look at the meaning, or vice versa. This is a simple, quick and easy way for learners to test themselves over and over again, so there is no pressure on you to keep searching for different exercises. It is also useful to demonstrate this so that students can revise vocabulary in their own time using this 'cover and check' approach.
- You will often notice ABOUT YOU or ABOUT YOUR COUNTRY. These are personalized exercises which give learners an opportunity to use the new vocabulary in a freer way and within the context of their own lives. Students can write answers to these, but they make ideal pairwork activities for students to practise their spoken English while using the new vocabulary. If you use these as speaking activities, students could then write their answers (or their partner's answers) as follow-up. In the Answer key, possible answers for these exercises are provided by both native speakers and proficient non-native speakers from different parts of the world. This may be of particular value to a self-study learner, as a way of comparing answers.

How can students use the material on their own?

The material has been designed so that it can be used effectively both in the classroom or by learners working alone. If you want your learners to use the material for self-study, you can recommend that they use the book alongside the , as it gives them a pronunciation model for items of vocabulary, as well as further practice exercises. For self-study learners in particular, it is a good idea to start with the first module on expanding your vocabulary. Self-study learners can check their answers to exercises using the Answer key, and test themselves using the 'cover and check' procedure explained above. They can also select the topics that interest them, or the topics where they most need to expand their vocabulary.

1 Meaning and style

A Asking about meaning

- A Would it be accurate to say that student and pupil are synonymous?
- B No, not exactly. A student is a person who studies in a school, college or university. Pupil has a more restricted use. A pupil is someone who only studies in a school, especially a primary school.
- A It's a bit ambiguous to say she's a good student, isn't it?
- B Yes, you can interpret it in different ways. Good can mean 'well-behaved' or 'hard-working'.
- A The meaning of wrapping paper is fairly obvious, isn't it?
- B Yes, it's self-explanatory: just paper for wrapping presents and stuff.
- A Can you give me a precise definition of soul?
- B Well, it's virtually the same as spirit: the part of you that is believed to exist after you die. But spirit has several other meanings too.

22 Families

There is a tendency among some women to believe that however hard you try, you end up like your mother. Well, it's hard to say if that's the case with me because my mother passed away when I was only nine, and my father was left a widower. He did remarry several years later, and I was brought up by my father and stepmother. I know the presence of a new woman in the family can be difficult, but we have always had a really positive relationship. We are not alike in looks or character, but I think I've picked up one or two of her good habits. For example, I always remember to write personally to thank people for birthday or Christmas presents.

By my teens, my father told me that I was starting to resemble my mother a bit more, and it seems I have got one or two of her characteristics. (Like me, she didn't take criticism very well!) But I think it's now increasingly apparent that I take after my father more in character and behaviour. That's fine by me, although it seems to be the opposite with my two siblings, both sisters. My dad says that they remind him much more of my mother.

me with my mother when I was nine

We reported earlier this morning on a major incident on the M5 just before the Gloucester Service Station. Eyewitness reports say a large lorry pulled out from the inside lane and collided with a BMW that was overtaking. The lorry then spilled part of its load of wood, causing a massive pile-up as vehicles crashed into falling logs. The driver of the BMW was reported to be in a critical condition and has been taken by helicopter to Bristol Southmeads Hospital, while ambulances have taken a further six or seven casualties to a nearby Gloucester hospital. We understand a passenger in the BMW died at the scene of the accident.

Two lanes of the motorway are now completely blocked and will be for some time, according to accident investigators. 'Vehicles are scattered all over the motorway and the damage is extensive,' said one. 'It's just chaos at the moment.' The police are advising motorists to exit via Junction 12, or avoid the area completely, if at all possible.

A Conditions

English weather is unreliable, to say the least. We can have winters that are bitterly cold or extremely mild, and summers with long spells of hot weather when it can get very humid, or ones that stay generally cloudy and dull. Almost any day outside of summer can be mild or chilly. Equally possible are torrential rain, thick fog, flashes of lightning, scattered showers and the odd rainbow.

GLOSSARY

to say the least	used to say that sth is much worse or more serious than you are saying	chilly	(of the weather) too cold to feel comfortable bitterly cold	extremely cold	torrential rain	heavy rain SYN a downpour mild	during cold weather, warmer than you expect	thick fog	= fog that is difficult to see through SYN dense fog spell	a short period of time: a spell of hot/cold weather	flash	a sudden bright light that comes and goes quickly: a flash of lightning
humid	(of climate) warm and feeling slightly wet humidity n	scattered showers	rain spread over a large area or happening several times during a period of time
dull	(of the weather) not bright, with a lot of clouds	odd	not regular or fixed; happening occasionally

1 Which is worse, or are they the same?

B Effects of weather

Many people in this country listen to the weather forecast very closely, as it can have a significant impact on people's lives. Farmers are obviously dependent on weather conditions for the success of their crops, but the weather affects everyone:

- * A heatwave can eventually lead to water shortages and drought.
- * When there is heavy snow and blizzards, traffic comes to a standstill, and this causes widespread disruption on the roads.
- * Gales cause damage to people's property, and this may be widespread.

GLOSSARY

weather forecast	a description of the weather that is expected in the coming days
closely	carefully and with interest significant	important enough to be noticed and have an effect dependent (on sth/sb)	needing sth/sb to support you heatwave	a period of unusually hot weather shortage	a situation where there is not enough of sth OPP surplus drought	a long period without rain
blizzard	a bad storm with strong winds and a lot of snow
come to a standstill	reach a situation in which all activity or movement has stopped ALSO bring sth to a standstill widespread	found or happening over a large area: widespread damage disruption	a situation in which it is difficult for sth to continue in the normal way gale	a very strong wind. A breeze is a light, usually pleasant, wind.

| 3 s urplus b lizzard | 6 d rought t hought |

5 Circle the correct answer.

- 1 A surplus is too much / not enough of something.
- 2 A breeze is a strong / light wind.
- 3 Disruption causes / doesn't cause problems.
- 4 If you are dependent on something, you need / would like it.
- 5 A blizzard usually has strong winds / very low temperatures.
- 6 A significant effect is quite small / large.
- 7 A forecast talks about the future / past.
- 8 A heatwave is a day / period of hot weather.

6 Complete the texts.

The weather (1) yesterday predicted heavy snow during the night, and they were right. Traffic came to a (2) on the A4 this morning, and there was widespread (3) on many of the minor roads as well. I will certainly listen (4) to the forecast tonight!

Few people bother to budget, which is why so many are in debt. You must calculate the total income coming in each month, and the total going out, both regular outgoings and all other expenses. Then, subtract the expenses from the income. If there's a surplus, don't spend it: pay off any money you owe (in other words, your debts), and keep the rest for emergencies. If there is a shortfall, then you must take action. Consider where you can economize and make cutbacks. And don't expect anyone else to subsidize you and pay your debts.

budget	plan how much to spend and what to spend it on. A budget is the amount of money available to spend with a plan for spending it.
calculate	use numbers to find a total number, amount or distance SYN work (sth) out ; calculation n
subtract sth (from sth)	take one number from another to calculate the difference SYN take sth away (from sth)
pay sth off	finish paying money that you owe for sth owe	have to pay sb for sth that you have received or borrowed economize	reduce the amount of money, time, goods, etc. that you use SYN make cutbacks subsidize	give money to sb to help them pay for sth subsidy n

SPOTLIGHT surplus, deficit, shortage, shortfall

A surplus is more of something than is necessary. If it is money, the opposite is a deficit; if it is food, petrol, etc, the opposite is a shortage.

A shortfall is the difference between what you have and what you need.

B Causes of crime

What do you think?

- Some people think that it is the people closest to us when we are growing up who have the greatest responsibility for shaping our moral standards.
- Crime rates tend to be higher in slum areas, and for children from these areas, crime can become an attraction because it offers a way of becoming richer. They join gangs and drift into crime.
- Another cause is the abuse of alcohol and drugs which can force people into crime.
- Some argue it is personal weakness or parental neglect, made worse by a lack of discipline at home or in school, that leads people into crime.
- Some believe that if penalties for offenders were harsher, crime would go down.

GLOSSARY
moral	concerned with principles of right and wrong behaviour morals n pl
slum	an area of a city that is very poor and where the houses are in bad condition

B In the suburbs

I live in a block of flats that is surrounded by trees, which is rather nice. On the whole, it's considered a desirable district because it's a nice quiet suburb, near local shops and good schools, but also handy for town. The main drawback is that, although there is a pub nearby, it's not a particularly lively area – there's not much going on in the evenings, so you have to go into town for a decent nightlife. The other thing is that as time goes on, the area is getting more built-up, and that's a shame.

SPOTLIGHT go on

This phrasal verb has several meanings:

- 1 be going on be happening or taking place (as in the text)
- 2 (of time) pass SYN go by: As time went on/by, things improved.
- 3 (of a situation) continue: It could go on like this for a long time.

A Luxury accommodation

When we go away, the last thing we want is to find that everywhere is fully-booked, no vacancies anywhere, ending up in a miserable B and B (or Airbnb), possibly in the middle of nowhere. Therefore, we always book well in advance and go for something fairly exclusive, preferably in a town. It doesn't have to be a grand or impressive building, but we do expect luxury and first-class service in order to justify the high prices these places charge. Having said that, high prices are no guarantee of high quality.

SPOTLIGHT accommodation

A B and B (ALSO B & B – abbreviations of bed and breakfast; ALSO guest house) is like a fairly cheap hotel but it does not serve evening meals.

Airbnb is a private company in which members offer accommodation in a room, flat or house they own. This is all arranged online.

GLOSSARY

fully-booked	(of a hotel, restaurant, theatre, etc.) full; no places available	preferably	used to show which person or thing would be better or preferred
vacancy	a room in a hotel that is available: no vacancies	luxury	beautiful and expensive things luxurious adj miserable	unpleasant, making you feel unhappy	impressive	causing a feeling of admiration because of its size, quality, importance, etc. SYN grand ; impress v in the middle of nowhere	far away from other people and houses	justify	give or be a good reason for sth
in advance	before a particular time or event: book well in advance (= book a long time before you go)	having said that	used to introduce an opinion that makes what you have just said seem less strong exclusive	expensive and reserved for special people	guarantee	a promise that sth will be done or that sth will happen guarantee v

1 Underline the main stress on these words.

justify vacancy luxury in advance miserable guarantee luxurious exclusive preferably fully-booked

2 Good news, bad news, or could it be either? Write G, B or either.

- | | |

| 1 The meal was impressive. | 5 The B&B was in the middle of nowhere. |
| 2 The hotel was fully booked. | 6 The weather was miserable. |
| 3 They gave us a guarantee a taxi would be there. | 7 This area is rather exclusive. |
| 4 There were still vacancies at the hotel. | 8 The room wasn't luxurious. |

3 Complete the dialogues with a suitable word or phrase.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 Was the breakfast good? | ~ Yes, very good., there wasn't a lot of choice. |
| 2 Which floor do you want? | ~ I don't mind, but overlooking the garden. |
| 3 Have you reserved a room? | ~ Yes, we booked well |
| 4 Will they refund your money? | ~ Yes, they that when I rang and cancelled. |
| 5 It's very expensive. | ~ I know, but they that by the high quality of the rooms. |
| 6 Are there still rooms available? | ~ No, we got the last, so they're now. |
| 7 Was the building very grand? | ~ Yes, we were |
| 8 It's a very expensive place, isn't it? | ~ Yes, but I like a bit of on my holidays. |

4 ABOUT YOU Write your answers, or talk to another student.

- 1 Do you book your holidays well in advance?
- 2 Do you often stay in fairly luxurious hotels?
- 3 Do you ever stay in a B&B or use Airbnb?
- 4 Do you like being in the middle of nowhere for your holiday?
- 5 Do you think high prices usually guarantee high quality in your country?
- 6 What do you look for most in holiday accommodation?

B Budget accommodation

We're not mean, but we've generally opted for holidays which only require a fairly limited budget: occasionally in a caravan¹, but more often we go camping or stay in a youth hostel. The thing that appeals to me about camping is not just expense – it's cheap - but it also enables us to move around more freely, and we like that flexibility. And given that we generally live in comfort, I think it's good for the children to experience a type of holiday which is a bit different. When we go away we are quite strict about them not using their phones.

GLOSSARY

mean	wanting to keep money and not spend it on others OPP generous	enable sb/sth to do sth	make it possible for sb/sth to do sth
opt for sth	choose sth	flexibility	the ability to be changed easily flexible adj OPP inflexible budget	an amount of money you are able to spend on sth	given (that)	when you consider sth
youth hostel	a cheap and simple place to stay, especially for young people	comfort	the state of having a life with everything you need, or being physically relaxed: live in comfort appeal (to sb)	be attractive or interesting to sb appealing adj	go away	leave home for a period of time, especially for a holiday
expense	the money that you spend on sth: an extra expense	strict	not allowing people to break rules or behave badly

5 Complete the dialogues with a word or phrase.

- 1 Can you choose when you travel? ~ Yes, there's lot of with dates and times.
- 2 It's a very expensive holiday. ~ Yes, especially that he doesn't earn much.

A Buying

Hi Matt

Just wanted to let you know we've sold our terraced¹ house, and moved in to a larger semi-detached² property further out of town. It doesn't look that big from the outside, but the interior is really spacious: large entrance hall, with a wide staircase, and open-plan kitchen, dining room and living room. The bedrooms are also a good size, which is great. We need to do some decorating and probably put in a new kitchen, but basically the overall condition is quite good. The other bonus is that it was actually cheaper than our other house, largely because of the location, so we don't need such a big mortgage. ...

B Renting

I've finally found somewhere to rent. It's been difficult as there aren't many rental properties on the market at the moment. It's on the top floor of a three-storey house – I guess it was originally the attic – and I've taken out a one-year lease, but the landlord is happy for me to extend that if I want to. It's unfurnished, so I will have to buy a lot of new stuff, but it has recently been redecorated, and there's quite a lot of storage space. It's a two-bedroom flat, and I've already got a flatmate to share the rent with me, so it's not too expensive. I've just got to sign the contract now and pay the deposit along with one month's rent. I move in next week.

GLOSSARY

39 Gardens and gardening

A A natural garden

I've always wanted a garden that copies the best of nature. So, having acquired a country cottage with land around it, I'm now creating my own wildlife garden. I will need to remove a few old tree roots¹ that make planting difficult, but generally the project is going well. A gentle slope drops down from the cottage to a pond², where I've discovered quite a rare species of frog³, which I obviously want to protect.

Near the pond is a greenhouse⁴. I will grow tomatoes, but it's largely intended for more tropical fruits that you can't normally grow in England, such as melon and guava. There's already a variety of mature plants in the garden, and a shed where I can keep all my tools. Finally, I'm hoping to attract birds to build their nests in an old hollow tree in the small wood I have along one side of the garden.

GLOSSARY

acquire formal	get sth by buying it or being given it wildlife	animals, birds, and insects that live in a natural state slope	a piece of land that is higher at one end than the other slope v species	a group of plants or animals that are all similar and can breed together
intended (for sth)	planned or designed for sth
tropical	coming from or found in very hot parts of the world mature	fully grown or fully developed shed	a small simple building, usually built of wood, and often found in gardens nest	a place where birds lay their eggs and live with their young nest v
hollow	with a hole or empty space inside
wood (ALSO woods)	an area of trees, smaller than a forest

SPOTLIGHT nature

We can say someone is interested in nature ([U] = the physical world and everything that lives in it). We don't talk about being in-the-nature. We can say:

- I like being in the countryside OR looking at beautiful scenery.

1 Circle the correct answer(s). Sometimes both answers are possible.

41 Competitive football

A The championship

THE PREMIER LEAGUE

As the championship reaches its climax, Manchester City and Liverpool are still challenging for the title. Man City's next opponents are Fulham, at home, which looks to be a relatively easy game. Liverpool, however, face much tougher opposition, away at Arsenal. The manager is not underestimating the difficulty of the task. 'Arsenal are a quality side and still contenders for a place in the top four, so our priority is just that one game, and not to think about the championship title.'

GLOSSARY

B What do football supporters think?

CHELSEA

We lack a bit of consistency and the manager is under pressure. However, I still think we have a real chance of being in the top four and qualifying for The Champions League.

SPURS

We have a habit of dominating the opposition, then we throw it away at the end. Last week's defeat was a bad one, but I still think we stand a chance of getting into the top four.

MANCHESTER UNITED

The new manager has transformed our season, and getting players back from injury has been a real boost. We had no chance of qualifying for Europe at Christmas, but now it's a possibility.

ARSENAL

We've sorted out one or two problems off the pitch, but after three defeats in a row, there may only be an outside chance of making the top four.

7 ABOUT YOU Do you support a team? If so, how have they been playing recently? Write sentences using vocabulary from above, or tell a partner.

Will a song stand the test of time?

What is it about a pop song that makes it compelling not only as a hit single when it's released, but for future generations as well? Take, for example, Bohemian Rhapsody by Queen. Is it the interesting lyrics, the melodies or the fascinating changes of rhythm that make it so popular? Much less complicated, on the surface at least, but no less successful is: All You Need is Love by the Beatles. The sentiment in its catchy chorus couldn't be simpler, and it is such an easy song to sing along to. Or is it the personality and quality of the singer or the band that determine whether the song will engage the listener or not? David Bowie's music is certainly memorable for those reasons; the colourful characters he created, such as Ziggy Stardust, only add to that.

Are great songs ones that you recognize as great the first time you encounter them, or are there some that you need to listen to several times before they have an effect? Eleanor Rigby by The Beatles is perhaps an example of one which you need to listen to carefully because of its complex lyrics (e.g. 'wearing the face that she keeps in a jar by the door'), but also because it was such an original and different type of pop song at the time.

But whatever criteria you use to measure the greatness of a pop song (or any genre of music), one thing seems true for all of them: they have the ability to stand the test of time because people can relate to them and still see them as relevant decades after they were first written.

Police procedures

An arrest is when a police constable detains someone suspected of an offence. In the UK, the police can arrest you if they have a valid arrest warrant (issued by a magistrate), or if they have reasonable grounds for suspecting you have committed or are about to commit an offence. You are cautioned and then taken to a police station as soon as possible. Once you are in custody, you have the right to legal advice from a solicitor. If there is sufficient evidence, the police will charge you, and you will then appear in court where a magistrate will decide whether you should be remanded in custody or released on bail.

If your case goes to trial, you will either be convicted of the crime, or found innocent and acquitted. If you are found guilty, you will be sentenced by a judge.

SPOTLIGHT the police

A police officer is any member of the police force. In the UK, a (police) constable (abbreviated as PC) is an officer of the lowest rank (= position in an organization). Above the rank of constable is the sergeant, the inspector, and so on. The chief constable is the head of each regional police force.

A The prison system

An important element of the criminal justice¹ system is punishment for breaking the law. Since the abolition of capital punishment in the UK, imprisonment has been the most serious punishment. It satisfies our need for justice² and longer prison sentences are meant to be a deterrent. Furthermore, criminals who are locked up are no threat to society, and rehabilitation programmes in prison give criminals a chance to change their behaviour. However, the current system is in crisis. More people are being imprisoned, a significant percentage reoffend, and for some criminals, prison is simply regarded as an occupational hazard. Is it just our way of taking revenge? If so, can we justify its continued existence?

GLOSSARY

B A different system

GRENDON is not a typical institution within the prison system. It is constructed exclusively on the principles of group therapy, and operates more as a community than a prison for offenders. The inmates are all serving long sentences, and a high proportion are guilty of violent crime. Yet the prison is different from the normal system in almost every way, with an absence of physical force and segregation. The prison is divided into five self-contained communities, the prisoners are not confined in cells, and decisions are only taken with their consent.

SPOTLIGHT self

Before nouns and adjectives, self- means 'of, to or by yourself'.

- Self-contained communities are able to exist without outside help.
- On a self-catering holiday, you do the cooking yourself.
- Self-assessment is judging your own progress.

55 The armed forces

The US Military

comprises five branches in its field of operations: the army, the navy, the air force, the marine corps and the coast guard, all under civilian authority. More than 1.35 million people serve in the professional full-time military, with a further 800,000 in the reserve army. (There is no longer compulsory military service, though men aged 18-25 must register for it if the need arises.) The US military distinguishes between enlisted personnel, who make up about 85% of the armed forces and carry out fundamental operations such as combat and administration; and officers, who manage and supervise operations. The range of jobs is vast, but encompasses such diverse activities as running a hospital, commanding a tank, flying military aircraft, programming computers, maintaining weapon systems, etc.

WRITING A NEWS STORY

The first thing to consider is the type of story you are writing and the type of publication you are writing for: this will determine the style of writing.

Here are a few guidelines:

- 1 When you look at your blank screen, imagine your reader and what will interest them most.
- 2 If it is a specialist publication, you can assume a greater knowledge on the part of the reader. If it is a serious newspaper, you can also use longer sentences. But remember that space is the most precious commodity in a print newspaper; long sentences take up space. Avoid difficult words and long sentences, especially in mass-market publications, but don't talk down to your readers.
- 3 Your opening has to engage the reader instantly and summarize what the story is about. A good introduction will state why the story is being written and grab the reader's attention. This sets the tone for the rest of the piece.
- 4 Quotes are good – they add colour and personal experience – but if you are citing from specific sources, keep it short, otherwise the story will lose pace and direction. Sometimes the quote has to be there to provide precision – when the actual words are crucial to the message.

GLOSSARY

mass	affecting or involving a large number of people: mass-market books , mass unemployment . A mass is a large amount or quantity of sth.

SPOTLIGHT opening

Opening (n) has three meanings:

- 1 the beginning or first part of sth (as above):
The story has a strange opening.
- 2 an act of making sth open:
I went to the opening of the Picasso exhibition.
- 3 a small hole that sb/sth can pass through:

A A referendum

In 2016 there was a referendum in the UK concerning membership of the EU: to remain in the EU, or to leave the EU. The debate divided the nation and created a huge amount of conflict, even within families. Eventually, in a very closely-fought contest, there was a narrow majority for 'leave' (51.9% versus 48.1%). The turnout was high (just over 72% of the electorate voted), but that still meant that the outcome was decided by only 37% of the total electorate, and some have questioned, therefore, to what extent the result really represents the democratic will of the people. The British government then spent three years trying to negotiate an agreement that the British parliament could support.

B Email stress

The new office workers' plague

If you are constantly interrupted by the need to read your emails, your nerves are on edge. Over a third of workers say that they are increasingly overwhelmed by the endless stream of emails they receive, and are stressed out by the pressure to respond to them promptly. Research has found that some employees check their emails every few minutes, leaving them both frustrated and not very productive. Women seem particularly badly-hit by this flood of correspondence. One of the researchers said that email is 'an amazing tool' but agreed that it is getting out of control. The advice is to set aside two or three specific email reading times each day.

GLOSSARY

SPOTLIGHT metaphorical use of words

A plague is a serious fast-spreading disease which often results in death. In the title, though, it is used metaphorically and describes something that causes a lot of trouble. A stream is a small river, but here it means 'a continuous flow of things'. A flood is a large amount of water from a river or rain, but in the text it means 'a large quantity of something arriving at the same time'.

5 Circle the correct answer(s). Both answers may be possible.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 I always send a prompt / promptly reply to emails. | 5 We always put / set aside some money each month for a party at work. |
| 2 The amount of work was overwhelmed / overwhelming . | 6 We've had a plague / flood of letters this week expressing support. |
| 3 We've been badly / severely hit by a computer virus. | 7 I got very frustrated / frustrating by the constant interruptions. |
| 4 I've had a stream / plague of enquiries about the vacant job. | 8 People were streaming / flooding out of the building. |

6 One word is missing in each sentence. What is it, and where does it go?

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 Our spending has got of control. | 4 I was overwhelmed the response. |
| 2 He still hasn't called. My are on edge. | 5 There's so much work. I'm out. |
| 3 Fortunately, the situation is control. | 6 He keeps me when I'm working; it's annoying. |

7 Complete the questions with a suitable word from the top of the page.

Far from the Madding Crowd

by Thomas Hardy

Summary: After inheriting her uncle's farm, Hardy's heroine, Bathsheba Everdene, becomes an independent woman. Her beauty attracts many admirers: farm worker Gabriel Oak, landowner William Boldwood, and handsome soldier Frank Troy, whom she later marries. However, Troy is a selfish and evil man who allows his earlier love, Fanny Robin, to die in poverty while giving birth to his child. Boldwood hates Troy, and later in the novel he kills him in a jealous rage. Gabriel asks for mercy to be shown him, and Boldwood escapes death but is sent to prison instead. The novel ends with Bathsheba marrying Gabriel.

Commentary: Incidents, such as Fanny's pregnancy and her terrible death, and Boldwood's act of murderous violence, convey Hardy's growing taste for tragedy. But unlike Tess in the later Tess of the D'Urbervilles, fate still favours Bathsheba, as she finally finds happiness with Gabriel, who embodies the best qualities of the rural community in its fight against industrialization*, which Hardy found so alien.

Hardy exposes the dangers inherent in romantic love: relationships based on romantic love are by nature irrational, unstable and at risk of betrayal. In contrast, he implies that the true basis of a happy marriage is companionship and a common interest.

For some it is also an early example of feminist literature. Bathsheba is portrayed as an independent woman with the courage to defy convention and run a farm by herself.

Her passionate nature leads her into errors of judgement, but Hardy gives her the qualities of strength, intelligence and good luck to overcome the mistakes of youth.

industrialization = the development of new manufacturing processes in Britain from the late 18th century into the 19th century

The Turner Prize is awarded annually to a British visual artist for outstanding artistic merit. The winner also receives £25,000, although the amount has varied depending on the sponsor. The public can submit an artist nomination, and the panel of judges then selects a shortlist of three or four from their own nominations and those of the public. They select a winner on the day of the award ceremony, and the venue alternates between Tate Britain and galleries outside London.

Although it remains one of the most prestigious European art awards, it is also extremely controversial, and splits opinion in the art world. Some critics believe it demonstrates the most pretentious aspects of contemporary British art, while others think the Turner deserves respect for rewarding art which is bold, challenging and imaginative.

A Research

Scientific method

Scientific research proposes hypotheses as explanations of phenomena, and then designs experimental studies to gather empirical evidence and test them out. It is important these procedures can be repeated in order to predict future results with some certainty. A feature shared by other fields of enquiry is the conviction that the process must also be objective in order to reduce a biased interpretation of the results. Another basic expectation is to make all the data available for scrutiny by other scientists. This provides the opportunity to conduct further experiments to try to verify the results.

GLOSSARY

hypothesis (pl hypotheses)	a possible explanation of sth, based on a few facts but not yet proven: formulate/confirm a hypothesis ; SYN theory
phenomenon (pl phenomena)	sth that happens or exists, especially sth that is not fully understood

B Genetics

GENE THERAPY: Genes are the units which control the particular qualities inside a living thing. The process of passing these qualities on from parents to their children is known as heredity. Gene therapy is a technique for correcting defective genes responsible for diseases. It works by inserting a normal gene into the genome (the complete set of genes in a living cell) to replace an abnormal gene. A carrier molecule called a vector must be used to deliver the normal gene to the patient's target cells. But there are many limitations:

- the rapidly dividing nature of many cells means that gene therapy may be short-lived
- the normal gene may be attacked by the patient's immune system
- gene therapy works best on disorders arising from the mutation of a single gene.

GLOSSARY

therapy	the treatment of a physical problem or an illness as explained in the text hereditary adj

REACHING FOR THE SKY

An architect starts with an aesthetic vision of what a skyscraper will look like, and an engineer then turns this unique concept into a safe and practical building. For skyscrapers, which have more physical constraints than the average building, this is no easy task. To comply with building regulations, any structure reaching high into the sky has to be capable of supporting its considerable weight and able to withstand high winds and earthquakes. They have to undergo a thorough process of testing, and if results indicate there may be excessive movement, engineers have to find ways to restrict this motion and ensure the building will be structurally sound.

A skyscraper will also have many users – e.g. office workers, residents, hotel guests – so it must meet their various needs, as well as the strict rules concerning protection from fire and flooding.

The construction of a skyscraper begins with laying the foundations on rock deep beneath the ground. Steel or reinforced concrete columns are inserted into holes within the foundations, and concrete is then poured around them. Large cranes erect the vertical columns of the building's framework, after which girders are attached horizontally between them. It is this structure that gives support to the enormous load the building must bear. Panels made of materials such as glass or metal are built onto the framework to complete the skyscraper's exterior.

GLOSSARY

A Discussing problems

You know, my English should be quite fluent by now, but when it comes to foreign languages, what I learn in class goes in one ear and out the other, and my mind goes a complete blank the minute I open my mouth.

Well, it takes time to learn a language, but you'll get there in the end.

I could probably do with some extra lessons.

Perhaps. Do you have anyone in mind?

Off the top of my head, no.

Well, I think your best bet is to talk to your teacher.

As far as I know, she doesn't give private lessons, but you're right: I might as well ask her. Thanks.

- 1 Huge means 'very big/large'.
 - 2 Acquire is much more restricted because it has one main sense. Get has many different meanings.
 - 3 Yes, it is self-explanatory: a waiting room is a room where people wait, e.g. in a railway station or a doctor's surgery.
 - 4 The two words are not exactly synonymous because slim means 'thin in a positive way', whereas thin is often used to suggest that someone needs to put on more weight, so it is not used positively.
 - 5 It's not entirely accurate because a pupil could be at a secondary school or a primary school, and it's actually more common to use the word about children at primary school.
 - 6 Pick up has different senses, so the sentence could mean: 1) I physically picked up the bag from the ground, a chair, etc, or 2) I collected the bag from somewhere.
- 5 Negative words: insulting, disapproving, offensive, inappropriate, swearing
Some slang words may also have a negative meaning, but most slang is not negative.

3 show 7 genuine/sincere
4 boast 8 integrity
- 8 possible answers, from Argentina:
1 In my country, you are expected to give your seat to the elderly, pregnant women and people with special needs. The front seats on buses and trains are designated for that purpose, and drivers and conductors can enforce the rule if necessary. I think everybody would agree that it's considerate to give your seat to someone who needs it, but the regulation exists so that even those who are unwilling to give up their seat must do it.

- 2 In general terms, showing affection for your partner in public is acceptable in our society, although of course some people are more reserved than others and prefer not to show their feelings so openly.
- 3 Many people would agree that if you need to show off, you are seeking attention because you lack confidence.
- 4 Nowadays, travelling to far-off places is much more common than in the past, particularly for the young. People share those experiences – mostly on social media – but it's not considered boastful. In fact, most people are eager to hear about expensive holidays!
- 5 I think we used to be kinder and more friendly towards strangers and foreigners in the past. Nowadays, because of the rise in crime rates, most people are wary of strangers.
- 6 I'm afraid that in my country we are notorious for not being punctual! Therefore, we are used to being kept waiting.
- 7 Not all shop assistants are genuinely friendly, but some customers can be really rude and tiresome.
- 8 Most politicians are perceived as lacking integrity, so they are not trusted.

5 Parminder came over/across very well in the interview.
6 Rupert struck me as capable.
7 I think that Ariana has potential.
8 Vicky didn't seem (to be) very motivated.
- 5 possible answers:
1 I'm well informed about politics and economics.
2 I think that people who are conscientious are very important, and we need people like that in our schools, health service and industry.
3 If people are charming towards me, I'm usually charming back to them.
4 I feel confident when I am in control and know what I want to say.
5 It's sometimes a struggle for me to remember people's names when I first meet them, so I can seem rude when I meet them again.
6 If I meet someone who is arrogant, I spend as little time with them as possible.
7 If someone doesn't take me seriously, I don't worry too much. It's their problem, not mine.
8 I don't take to people who are arrogant and immature.
9 In an interview situation, I think I probably come across as quite well informed, but perhaps a bit shy and lacking in confidence.

- 10 If someone says something ridiculous in an interview, I think it could be because they're nervous or don't know what they're talking about.

3 I've been having a tough time at work recently. A young man joined the department and for some reason took an instant dislike to me. His desk was close to mine, and he just sat and stared at me without saying a word, which made me feel uncomfortable. Over time, he started to shout at me and became more and more aggressive until I felt quite nervous being near him. It put a big strain on me, and my work began to suffer. One day, I decided it was time to stick up for myself, so I told him his behaviour was terrible. I was shocked when he suddenly started crying and of course, I regretted what I had said to him. He thought that I blamed him for the poor results in the department, when in fact, that wasn't the case. Eventually, things settled down, and we got on much better.

3 heroine; courage; dignity

4 possible answers:

- When I was growing up, my hero was Ronaldo because I'm a great Manchester United fan, and he played for them when I was in my teens.
- I now look up to my boss at the charity where I work. She has always been very calm and dignified, even when difficult decisions have had to be made.
- My mother was very courageous, especially at the end of her life when she died from cancer at the relatively young age of 50.

8 possible answers:

- I think both are possible, but I certainly saw my brother bully my sister when we were young. They're great friends now, though.
- I won't eat rabbit or small birds.
- No, not very often.
- I can't bear drivers who drive too close behind me.
- Yes, I was. As a man, I had long hair, wore strange clothes, and often went on political demonstrations.
- No, it isn't, but I've never done it.

- Yes. I disapprove of my sister's boyfriend. He drinks too much and doesn't treat her well. I hope she leaves him soon.
- Yes, they often do. My parents have a different way of living: more serious, more religious than I am, but we agree on basic values such as honesty, integrity and loyalty.
- Yes, some of them are, but there are also some like Bill and Melinda Gates who are very generous and have spent many millions trying to eradicate malaria.
- I won't name names, but there are one or two politicians, in this country and abroad, that I despise because I think they are responsible for causing a great deal of harm to society.

3 pressure 7 crucial
4 nature 8 incentive

4 possible answers:

I'm sure parents play a very important role, but sometimes teenagers are very influenced by their friends, which can be a good or bad thing. I know my aunt and uncle played a crucial role in my childhood.

Peer pressure is very significant, I agree, particularly with social networking. It can be dangerous, too.

In general, I think positive incentives, such as praise or the possibility of more freedom, are better for young people.

I know two or three people who either came from a broken home or had a deprived childhood. One has done brilliantly in life, and one has had a few problems, but is doing his best to deal with them. So I agree, these factors don't necessarily have a damaging effect.

- Yes, that's always true.
- No, I think the best way to cope with problems is to think about solutions in a positive way.
- I don't think so. I think middle age is a difficult phase.
- Yes, that's crucial.
- No, it's very difficult. Adolescents have so much to learn and so many pressures.
- I think that's true.
- On the whole, I agree.
- I'm not sure about this. Sometimes you have to take time to think, but occasionally it's not possible. Making mistakes isn't bad if you learn from them.
- Yes, I agree.
- I agree. Life can be difficult for them, but in the end, things get better.
- I think that's true, but it doesn't mean we should always accept bad conduct from teenagers. They must also take some responsibility for their actions.

6 possible answers:

- I think I resemble my father more than my mother.
- No, not really. I can see characteristics in both my mother and father which I share.
- I have a sister, and we are alike in that we both have brown hair, brown eyes and fair skin. Our characters are completely different, though.
- All the members of my family are very punctual and get very impatient if anyone else is late.
- I think there is perhaps some truth in the idea that daughters become more like their mothers and sons become more like their fathers. However, living in different times also makes us different from our parents in terms of our attitudes to things.
- If we're honest, I don't think anyone likes being criticized, but I think it's something people learn to accept a bit more as they get older. That has been my case, I think.

- 4 possible answers, from India:
- Yes, it is quite customary to eat chicken legs or wings with your fingers at home in India. However, when eating outside, at a restaurant or somebody else's home, we use cutlery.
 - Yes, Indian parents think it's important for children to have good table manners.
 - No, in India it is not considered bad manners to eat everything you are given. Usually, we are encouraged to take as much food as we can eat. Wasting food is considered bad manners.
 - Yes, it is viewed as polite to offer food to the elderly first.
 - Yes, it is discourteous to start eating your food before others have been served.

- Yes, as a guest, it would be offensive to criticize the host's food.
- Talking with your mouth full might not be considered very sophisticated in India.
- It is customary among young people, especially among friends, to split the bill in restaurants in India.
- Yes, it is viewed as rude to lick your knife, fork or spoon when you have finished eating, or stick your own knife, fork or spoon into dishes of food for the whole table.

4 possible answers, from China:

- 1 There are some zebra crossings in my city, Hong Kong. Motorists always stop for pedestrians.
- 2 I don't drive, so I don't use pay and display machines. My friends who drive usually pay by a stored-value smart-card. Some people still pay with coins if the machine allows.
- 3 There are very few traffic wardens in Hong Kong. If there is one to direct the traffic due to special conditions, drivers and pedestrians must follow their instructions.
- 4 We do not fit special tyres on our car in the winter because it does not snow here.
- 5 Automatic headlights and windscreen wipers are helpful, especially windscreen wipers as it rains quite often here.
- 6 Some people park on the pavement here, though it is not allowed.

- 2 No, you shouldn't, but sometimes I do.
- 3 Yes, I agree and, where possible, I always do.
- 4 Of course you should, but I think many motorists carry on driving when they are tired.
- 5 That's true.
- 6 That sounds like good advice. Fortunately, I've never been in that situation. I have skidded, but only for a moment, and I've never lost control of the car.
- 7 Personally I agree, but people who like driving often prefer manual cars.

- 1 parental responsibility
 - 2 suffered abuse (also possible: been abused)
 - 3 discipline
 - 4 moral issue
 - 5 harsher penalties
 - 6 drifted into crime
 - 7 neglect
 - 8 attraction

8 possible answers, from Kenya:

I disagree. Crime rates are high in estates where the middle class live as well as in slum areas. Gadgets such as mobile phones, tablets and laptops are easy targets for criminals. Many criminals blame parental neglect, yet it is a lack of discipline on their part. There have been instances of pickpockets making away with gadgets such as mobile phones on busy streets and laptops stolen from public offices.

Crimes are also committed by people who aren't poor because they offer an easy way to make money and live a good life. People who abuse alcohol and drugs often drift into crime because they steal to get money to buy their next dose. What is needed are harsh penalties for offenders which will discourage others and prove that crime does not pay.

Unit 34

1 suggested answers:

usually negative: regret, filthy, litter, depressing, homeless
These words can be negative, but it depends on the context: abandon, damp, hang around, graffiti, concerned

| 3 | 1 homeless | 6 depressing |
| | 2 passage | 7 hanging |
| | 3 concern | 8 regretted |
| | 4 youths | |
| | 5 graffiti | |

4 possible answers, from Poland:

litter on the ground: Interestingly, I often see litter on the ground near dustbins in a park near my home during weekends. I suppose the park cleaning service doesn't work at weekends and this is the reason why there is so much abandoned litter. And obviously, such a sight is a drawback of walking in the park on Sunday. A real shame. But on the whole, I don't think we have much litter in the street, not compared to some other countries.

graffiti: Yes, quite a lot. Some of it falls under the category of murals. They are a nice artistic expression. But actually there are quite a lot of spray 'signatures', not representing anything – just lines, not meaning anything – a rather depressing sight. Another category is often linked with supporting e.g. a football team or degrading/disrespecting it. Some texts on walls are political statements.

homeless people sleeping in the street: One can see homeless people in the streets but not sleeping. They sleep in parks or deserted houses but not really in the streets. You can sometimes see homeless people sitting in passages in the city centre.

filthy pavements: Yes, where filth is created by unfavourable weather conditions such as melting snow, or mud because of torrential rain.

gangs of youths: I suppose in some very specific districts of a bigger city, but on the whole gangs of youths hanging around are not a big problem in Poland.

 - 7 on the whole/in general

7 possible answers:

- 1 It's quite built-up because it's not far from the centre, but many houses have a garden, and there are two parks, so there is still a feeling of space.
- 2 It's surrounded by garden on three sides, with a road on the fourth side.
- 3 We have quite a few shops nearby: a chemist's, a florist's, a small supermarket, a deli, and one or two others.
- 4 It's very convenient for me because I can walk into town in ten minutes.
- 5 I suppose the main drawbacks are that it is on a hill so the walk home is all uphill, and many residents complain about the shortage of parking.
- 6 As time goes on I think the district will improve because councils are more aware of the environment than they used to be, and I've noticed that the shops are gradually getting better.

| 1 terraced;
semi-detached | 4 take out |
| 2 hall | 5 decorating |

4 possible answers, from the Czech Republic:

- 1 Yes, especially terraced houses. They've been here for centuries: the old ones are usually single-storey buildings forming a line along the main street in a village and having a large garden or even an orchard behind the house; the modern ones are higher, often two-storey buildings, sometimes with an attic and a tiny front and a small back garden where the families relax and enjoy barbecues and meals in the summer. Semi-detached houses are less common, but we do have them, especially on the outskirts of cities. Their bonus is more privacy than in the terraced houses but, of course, the prices are usually higher.
- 2 No, not really. The entrance hall is mostly small, even tiny, with a lot of doors and is simply furnished with a wall rack and a shoe rack or cupboard.
- 3 Open-plan design is not very popular in our homes. In most homes, there's one large room, which serves as a living-room, dining-room and a kitchen, and a number of smaller rooms which provide privacy to the family members. Open-plan flats are usually very modern and spacious and are often built in reconstructed areas of big cities. They are either offered for rent or for sale, but because of the high prices, the buyer normally applies for a mortgage.
- 4 Yes, a lot of people do, especially young people. But to get the mortgage you need to prove you have a permanent job and the amount of the mortgage depends on how much you earn.
- 5 Some people still do the decorating themselves – either because they enjoy doing things on their own, or because of the cost. But nowadays, more and more people have the decorating, and cleaning afterwards, done for them.
- 6 It depends, of course. If a young couple buy a home, they often need to save before they can make some bigger changes. A lot of bathrooms and kitchens are installed in old high-rise blocks of flats, which are in a somewhat dilapidated condition. Sometimes the young people move into a home which used to be owned by their grandparents, so they refurbish the whole place. Also, a lot of people decide to replace their old kitchen or bathroom when their family situation changes, for example when they look after an old relative or their children leave home, or they decide to extend their living area because a child marries and/or has a baby.

| 3 storage | 8 storey (also possible:

8 possible answers, from the Czech Republic:

- 1 Yes, it is, especially in big cities. People usually want to buy a flat or house if they believe it's for a lifetime. If they come to the city to work or study, they usually rent a flat. Young people often live in rented flats until they start a family, then they look for a place to buy. And, of course, there are people who can never afford to buy a place of their own.
- 2 In the past, almost all the flats offered for rent were unfurnished. But with the changing lifestyle, a lot of flats, especially in big cities, are offered furnished and with all modern conveniences.
- 3 No, the length of contracts varies. It depends on the renter and landlord's agreement. The contract can be signed for a few months and for many years. But included in the contract, there are always conditions under which any of the parties can terminate the contract, and also a common condition is a deposit of three months' rent which can be used to cover the cost of any damage caused by the renter.
- 4 Yes, usually they are, on condition the renter has caused no problems and the landlord has no other plans with the flat, of course.

I support Chelsea. They have done quite well this season, but there have been too many home defeats and draws against teams we really should dominate easily. We were a bit inconsistent, and the manager was under pressure for a lot of the time because Chelsea supporters always expect a lot. In the end, though, we qualified for the Champions League, so that's not bad.

6 possible answers, from Argentina:

- 1 I think that, as with all art forms, what matters is how we relate to the piece – what the song means to us personally. There are many reasons why a song might be considered great – it might be the rhythm, the lyrics, the melody, or a combination of all three.
- 2 A great pop song should be relevant to the listeners, which means that audiences can personally engage with the feelings evoked in the song. That is why most hits deal with basic human emotions, like love in all its forms.
- 3 As I'm not a musician myself I tend to focus on the lyrics.
- 4 I'm always humming or singing along to my favourite songs.
- 5 I think the sentiment behind a song is what can make a song truly popular. But of course there are exceptions to this – some very repetitive and simple songs have become hits.
- 6 I would say most songs by The Beatles have stood the test of time. If I had to write a list, I would include:
We can work it out (The Beatles)
I guess that's why they call it the Blues (Elton John)
Under my skin (Frank Sinatra)
Suspicious Minds (Elvis)

- 4 possible answers, from Argentina:
I would say that in my country, sometimes parties are prepared beforehand, which of course gives the hosts the chance to enjoy the party more, but sometimes gatherings are kind of improvised.
Guests usually contribute with drinks or snacks. I have never seen bouncers in private parties, but it sounds like a good idea – now with people posting everything on social media, gatecrashing is a risk.
If people know one another, things get going quickly. Music can certainly liven up any event, particularly live music!
Of course, there is always a lot to clear up afterwards, but if you feel your guests have had a good time, it's really worth it.

- 6 possible answers, from Hungary:
1 We have many different parties showing the whole spectrum of political views from right-wing to left-wing. Fortunately, extremist parties are not among the major political players and do not have seats in the Parliament.
2 It depends on the particular issue we are talking about. If I find it necessary, I cannot refrain from calling/voting for radical change.
3 In many cases maintaining the status quo would be quite boring. When it comes to politics, I can imagine situations where radically changing the existing order is the only way out.

- 4 I am not that much into politics so I cannot really say. What I find unacceptable is when people criticize the existing government just because they are in power. I believe in studying a given issue from as many aspects as possible and forming an informed opinion based on facts rather than on my emotions.
- 5 Yes, I strongly believe in personal and economic freedom, and am quite tolerant towards people whose views differ from mine.
- 6 Absolutely, I always have my ID card and my driving licence on me.
- 7 I live in a big city – Budapest – so we have practically all types of public transport. The most common are bus, tram and the underground, but you can also take a suburban train or cycle around on the many newly-built cycle paths. The latest craze is the electric scooter but, personally, I find it rather dangerous.

- 6 possible answers, from the Czech Republic:
- 1 Yes. Each town has a mayor. In big cities they are called Lord Mayor. Elections take place every four years. In these local elections, people vote for the future members of the council. Then, at their first meeting, the elected councillors choose the mayor. He/She is usually the head of the party who won the majority of seats and his/her deputies are heads of the coalition parties.
- 2 Yes, it is. The bigger the town, the more influence the mayor has.
- 3 The mayor cannot decide much on their own. They always act in compliance with the decisions of the town council. They take decisions on the town's development, approve its budget, and establish and abolish organizations such as the local police, technical services which look after the cleaning of the town, collection and sorting of rubbish, parks and other green spaces, cultural centres, and sports centres and facilities. They are also responsible for kindergardens and basic schools, and a lot more. The mayor is the one to sign the most important documents and bears the responsibility for matters they refer to.

Your GP refers you to a specialist
You get a free prescription for some drugs but some are paid for. People who are insured get some discount. I also think you get some discount if you are a pensioner.
When you suspect that a doctor has made a mistake and it is too late to have it fixed by him/her, you can sue the doctor for negligence, damages, etc.
In order to become a participant in a clinical trial, you need to be referred by your GP or a specialist.
I think in certain cases you can have cosmetic surgery for free, e.g. when it is treatment after an accident or an operation.

- 4 possible answers:
1 I don't know the answer to that, but I think we could rehabilitate more offenders than we do at present.
2 There are many possible reasons: not enough support from friends, family or the state; the person can't get a job and is short of money, mixing with the wrong kind of people; crime becomes a way of life, etc.
3 Clearly it isn't a very effective deterrent if a significant number reoffend.
4 No, I have never believed in capital punishment.
5 I would like to abolish solitary confinement.
6 The answer is probably 'no', but I can understand people wanting revenge; it's human nature in some situations and circumstances.
7 Yes, I believe it is. I think we currently lock up more people in the UK than any other European country. The prisons cannot cope with the numbers; they are overcrowded.
8 I believe in the need for the criminal justice system, but justice – the fair treatment of people – is not easy to achieve.

7 possible answer:

I think we should have more prisons based on these principles. It wouldn't work for everyone and perhaps not a majority, but it could be successful in rehabilitating a good proportion of offenders because it works on the principle that if you treat people like decent human beings, there is a good chance they will then behave like decent human beings.

I was a freelance illustrator for four years. I enjoyed similar advantages such as being able to choose what work to take on and being my own boss. Occasionally I encountered a degree of isolation as my work often got in the way of my social life. Over the years, I came to appreciate that my income was not guaranteed and that I had to take on extra work when it was available. I was able to take care of my family, open a restaurant, which my wife runs, and buy a car. I don't miss the additional benefits of a regular job because I have health insurance and I am enrolled in a pension scheme.

5 leave
- 6 entitled; pension
7 right; trade; strike
8 commission
9 right
10 minimum; leave

6 possible answers:

- 1 In my job, I don't get a commission because I'm not a salesman, and I don't get health or dental insurance either. However, I get the other perks mentioned. The annual bonus varies from year to year, but we usually get one. The other benefit I get is the opportunity to eat in a subsidized canteen, where the food is quite good and very cheap. The most important benefit for me is the company pension because it's worth the most money.
- 2 I enjoy all the rights mentioned, and I believe everyone should have those rights.
- 3 (answer from a 17-year-old still at school) I like the sound of an annual bonus, especially if it comes at Christmas when I need more money. I would also like paid sick leave if I was ill. I don't know much about pensions but my parents are always telling me they're important, so that would be good too.

9 deadlines
10 note it down
11 at a time

4 possible answers:

I think it is a good idea to make a note of tasks you need to do, but I don't think it is necessary to put reminders everywhere. Prioritizing is also important, but setting deadlines for every task is very difficult. I think it's also difficult sometimes to stick to one thing at a time. Sometimes you just have to do two things at the same time. I try to stick to my priorities. That's important. And you should always delegate if you can. Anticipating problems is not easy.

8 possible answers:

- 1 Fortunately, I don't get a constant stream of interruptions, but I find that even one or two can be a bit frustrating.
- 2 I'm usually quite productive in the morning, but less so in the afternoon.

- 3 I think my productivity would be improved if we had air conditioning. In the summer it gets very hot where I work, and it makes me feel a bit sleepy.
- 4 Personally, I like to reply to emails promptly, otherwise they build up and become overwhelming.
- 5 I don't think I get stressed out, but I do sometimes worry a bit that I don't have enough time.
- 6 No, I don't think so, but I know several friends who think like that.

3 possible answers:

- 1 I think you need hard work or luck (and probably both) to thrive for a long time.
- 2 I think it's good if you are passionate about what you do. I'm not sure it's essential in order to be successful, though.
- 3 Forward planning is certainly important in business or a career.
- 4 I'd like to feel that I had fulfilled my potential. In other words, I aspire to be the best I can be in my field.

- 3 No, but I dropped out of a Spanish course because I was too busy with work.
- 4 Actually, passing my driving test was a struggle because I failed the first time.
- 5 Yes, I had a serious row with someone at work because they didn't give me an opportunity to apply for a job that I wanted. We have a better relationship now, but for a long time we didn't.
- 6 Yes, I stopped doing yoga because I didn't think I was getting any better.

3 possible answers:

Litter on the streets is not a major problem, but it's not an easy problem to resolve because some people will always drop litter. It's a question of education, I think.

Graffiti is a major problem in some places, but where I live they are tackling it quite successfully. If you see graffiti, you can call a number, and they will send a team to clean it off. It seems to work.

Household rubbish is a growing problem and will only be resolved when we stop using so much plastic and packaging around everything we buy.

Some cities are now seriously starting to address the problem of pollution by introducing charges for vehicles with high pollution levels.

Parking is another growing problem as we increase the number of cars in society. Most cities in England are tackling it by increasing out of town parking areas to encourage people to get buses into the town centre.

Bullying has always been present, especially in schools. More schools are facing up to the problem now with both punishments for offenders and counselling for victims.

I think teenagers are often unhappy about their appearance (I was), and this is bad for their self-esteem. I also agree that it is difficult to accept any kind of failure, and equally difficult to keep things in perspective.

Another problem for teenagers now is the significance of social media. This causes massive peer pressure to do what others do. It is easy in these circumstances for teenagers to exaggerate the significance of various problems.

4 possible answers:

I think time definitely flies when you're older.

I wouldn't say I get depressed generally, but certain events make me depressed from time to time, such as political events, social issues or family issues.

That's not true for me because I started a pension some years ago. However, it's probably about time I increased the amount of money I put into my pension.

I never wanted to be a journalist, but at one time I wanted to be a professional rugby player.

No, that's not true. I do certain things at the last minute such as sending people birthday cards, but in general I'm quite organized.

That's not true for me because I went to university.

In general that's true, though I sometimes think about how I might be happier.

I am very punctual but I'm not sure it's a great virtue.

No, that's not true for me. I often plan for the future.

I'm sure that's true. I can think of several times in my life when I didn't work as hard as I should've done.

possible answers, from Hungary:

- 1 To be honest, I find it hard to recall true memories of my early childhood. My parents were keen photographers so they got a shot of practically every step my sister and I took. Whenever I try to look back on my childhood, I can mostly recall the photos I have seen many times since then. This feels sad because I will never know if the memory would have faded had it not been for the photo immortalizing the moment.
- 2 I would say it is the Christmas Eves we used to have when I was a child. We would wait outside the living room for my father to ring the bell, which meant we were allowed to go in and have a look at the glistening tree and the neatly wrapped presents underneath. We would step in and with my mother taking the lead we would start singing. It was pure magic for me back then.
- 3 It depends on the emotion attached to the event. I tend to avoid recalling embarrassing situations or events that went particularly badly for me. What I remember most vividly is situations where I excelled in something or achieved my goals, however insignificant they appear now.
- 4 I prefer looking ahead, but now and again certain smells or sights or people I happen to meet evoke some memories, and in those moments I do enjoy looking back and recalling things that I have experienced or places I have been to. It's also great to reminisce in the company of old friends and have a laugh about the past we shared. I'm obviously talking about good memories. As for the unpleasant ones, they're probably not worth dwelling on, so I just try to erase them from my memory.

5 an eye for an eye 12 end justifies the means
6 so far, so good
7 the grass is always greener on the other side (of the fence)

5 possible answers:

- 1 I agree that you shouldn't judge a book by its cover, and I think that prevention is better than cure. I also find there is a common human tendency to believe that the grass is always greener – it's very easy to look around and see people who have more than you. But if you look around it is also easy to find people who have less.
- 2 I think there are some circumstances when the end never justifies the means, and I don't believe in an eye for an eye. I'm not sure why people say the more the merrier. It might be true sometimes, but quite often the opposite is true – having more people can spoil some things.
- 6 1 How a person looks is less important than their character.
2 When you love somebody, you cannot see their faults.
3 You should care for your own family first, before you start looking after others.
4 rely on one course of action for success rather than give yourself several different possibilities

4 possible answers:

I have confidence in my ability to manage my life in general, but no confidence in my ability to be successful in business.

I don't think you should take advantage of every opportunity. Sometimes more money just means more problems, and not all ways of making money are legal.

Yes, I think that's true.

I don't need reminders of people's birthdays; I can remember everyone's birthday in my family.

I'd like to have greater involvement in charity work; I will do more when I have time.

I think that's true. You can't have what you want without some effort.

The most expensive thing I've ever bought is a sofa, which I got in a sale.

Yes, I would support government limitations on air travel.

There are pluses and minuses, but on the whole, I think social media is allowing people to be more unkind and ruder to each other.

I feel contempt for certain corrupt and egotistical politicians.
